

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN KING CEASOR UNIVERSITY, UGANDA AND UNIVERSIDADE IGUAÇU – UNIG, BRAZIL

This Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") is entered into between King Ceasor University (KCU), Uganda, and Universidade Iguaçu (UNIG), Brazil (collectively, "the Parties").

1. Purpose

The purpose of this MOU is to establish a framework for academic, research, technological and institutional cooperation. Priority areas include artificial intelligence, quantum technologies, medicine and surgery, pharmacy, civil engineering, law, and other fields mutually agreed upon by the Parties.

2. Areas of Cooperation

Subject to institutional policies, available resources and applicable laws, the Parties intend to cooperate in the following areas:

a. Research and Innovation

- Joint research, publications and grant applications.
- Sharing of laboratories, scientific facilities, libraries, digital platforms, data centres and other research resources.

b. Academic Mobility

- Student, faculty and staff exchanges.
- Research placements, internships, clinical training and visiting appointments.

c. Academic Programmes

- Joint and dual-degree programmes, credit recognition and curriculum development.
- Modular learning systems, stackable micro-credentials, professional short courses, workshops, and online or blended learning, subject to applicable accreditation requirements.

d. Institutional Development

- Exchange of knowledge and best practices in university governance, quality assurance, digital transformation, research administration and institutional capacity building.

3. Implementation

The Parties shall designate coordinating representatives to oversee activities under this MOU. Specific initiatives may be implemented through separate written agreements defining responsibilities, timelines, funding, intellectual property, confidentiality and other applicable terms. Unless otherwise agreed, each Party shall bear its own costs.

4. General Provisions

This MOU expresses the Parties' intentions and does not create legally binding financial or contractual obligations. Each Party shall retain its institutional independence. This MOU shall remain in force from the date of the final signature and may be renewed by mutual written agreement. Either Party may terminate it by providing one (1) months' written notice.
